Re: Conditional Sale Agreements recorded under Nos. 6115 and 6117

Dear Mr. Oswald:

Recently the B&O filed two Conditional Sale Agreements pursuant to §20c of the Interstate Commerce Act. The documents which were recorded were incomplete and should be withdrawn from the Commission's files. The subject matter covered by the two Agreements has since been protected by new and unrelated filings with the Commission.

The two documents to be withdrawn are (1) Conditional Sale Agreement dated as of April 1, 1971, between Pullman, Incorporated (Pullman-Standard division) and The Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company (bound together with an Agreement and Assignment), filed on April 16, 1971, at 1:15 p.m. and bearing Recordation No. 6115, and (2) Conditional Sale Agreement dated as of April 1, 1971, between ACF Industries, Incorporated and The Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company (bound together with an Agreement and Assignment), filed on April 19, 1971, at 1:15 p.m. and bearing Recordation No. 6117.

Please notify me when these Agreements have been removed from your files.

Yours very truly,
